

Our Mission Statements...

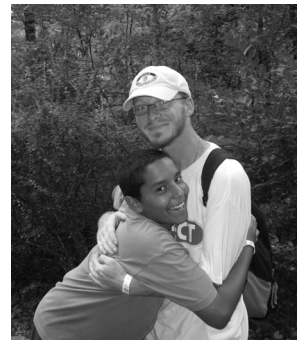

Camp Joy's purpose is to introduce children and their families from the New York Metropolitan area into a growing relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ by providing camping and discipleship ministries and encouraging involvement in a local Church.

Camp Hope's purpose is to minister to NYC metropolitan area's children and adults with disabilities and their families; evangelizing and discipling through summer camp and year-round follow-through and encouraging involvement in a local Church.

Family Camp's purpose is to introduce Latino families affected by disabilities from the NYC metropolitan area into a growing relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ by providing camping and discipleship ministries and encouraging involvement in a local Church. This will be held August 17-25, and will be staffed partially by Volunteers.

What's Important to Us?

1. That our camp is God-centered
2. That the gospel is central
3. That all persons have worth because they're made in God's image
4. That we do things well because excellence honors Christ
5. That we consider safety and security for all as imperative for an excellent camp
6. That growth is vital for all of us: campers, counselors, staff, leadership!
7. That we are faithful witnesses by giving clear presentations of the gospel in the context of compassion
8. That each camper, guest and staff person would feel positive about his/her experience here (have fun, feel loved, see growth)

Our Statement of Faith

We Believe...

- The Scriptures of the Old Testament and the New Testament, to be verbally inspired by God and inerrant in the original writings and that they are of supreme and final authority in faith and life.
- In one God, eternally existing in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
- In Jesus Christ, true God and true man, the world's only Savior. In His pre-existence, virgin birth, sinless life, vicarious death, burial and bodily resurrection and personal visible return.
- In the Holy Spirit as a Person, indwelling and empowering the believer, convicting the unsaved and presenting the claims of Christ.
- That sinful man is lost and can be redeemed only by the shed blood of Christ through the regeneration of the Holy Spirit.
- In the bodily resurrection of the dead: the believer to life everlasting and the unbeliever to eternal condemnation.
- That the church, the body of Jesus Christ, for which He will return, is comprised of all who have accepted the redemption provided by Him.
